ENTERTAINED

A number of friends and relatives met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wash Goodnight, near Purdy, Saturday, Aug. 1st, and spent a most enjoyable day. The families departed from their homes about 9 o'clock in the morning and first drove to the Goodnight cemetery near Purdy where they cleaned off and decorated the graves of the ones gone on before.

At the noon hour all drove to the Goodnight home where a bountiful dinner was spread, which seemed to be enjoyed and relished by all present.

The families present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goodnight and family, of near Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patent and two daughters, Pearl and Audy, of Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Finis Marbut and family, of near Mount Grove, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson and little son Claudy, of Kings Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Butler, of near Exeter, Mr. and Mrs. Rile Doss and little son Archie, of Chickasha, Okla. Those from near Purdy were Mrs. Francis Goodnight and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wormington and two of Mrs. Robinson's daughters.

Ice cream and cake were served in the afternoon.

The young folks had a wet time playing and all seemed to be very sorry when the time came for the crowd to part and go to their homes, for it seems such gatherings are an uncommon thing in this day and age of the world.

Joplin, Aug 5.—Reports on the majority received by Congressman Perl D. Decker over D. E. McDowell for the Democratic nomination for representative in congress from the Fifteenth district continued to pile up as the returns from Tuesday's primary reached the various county seats yesterday.

Gulick's are giving a pair of "stills" free with every boy's suit purchased from them. There is not a boy in the world that does not know what a pair of stils are, and the fun you can have with them. The stils are made of hard pine, painted a bright red, with iron braces for the feet. Now boys if you are going to buy a suit of clothes, be sure and buy them at "Gulick's" store and they will give you a pair of stils free.

DISPLAY BRAVERY IN ACTION

Tribute of American Army Officer to Mexican Federalists and Constitutionalists.

In describing the battle of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, January 12, 1914, between the Huerta forces and the Carranzistas, First Lieut. Bruce P. Disque, Third United States cavalry, says that "no one who saw this affair will ever believe that the Mexican is lacking in bravery, courage or initiative. The personal courage of the Mexicans was noticeable. A federal officer mounted rode out from near the center of their line with a small detachment to reconnoiter. It was not long before his horse was shot in the joints and sank to the ground. At the time other bullets were tearing up the earth about the officer. He slowly stepped off his animal and calmly walked back to the works, smoking his cigarette, seemingly unperturbed. Another interesting display of bravery was given by the members of a Carranza machine gun crew. One man was operating a gun in the open. He would fire a few rounds, and then stand up and walk about for a few moments, and then return and fire some more. Federal bullets were making things warm about his gun, but he never seemed to notice them. Finally he was hit and apparently killed. Another man immediately came out of shelter and started to work the gun. He lasted about five minutes when he fell mortally wounded and was immediately replaced by a third man, who picked up the gun, moved it about 30 yards to the right, and opened fire. No one of these men made a hurried motion, all were deliberate and apparently unconcerned, and absolutely indifferent to the danger of the federal bullets."

This was typical of the conduct of the Mexicans under the observation of Lieutenant Disque. With the contestants it was a fight to the death, for early in the action it was evident that no quarter would be the rule. This was apparent after a small detachment of federalists, about 30 in number, was surrounded early in the morning of the first and massacred to a man. The federalists' entire conduct under fire was characterized by a high degree of discipline, coolness under fire and the entire lack of nervousness, showing that they were offered by men of superior ability and character. They had nothing to gain and everything to lose, and stood their ground loyally in the belief that they were serving a government to which allegiance was due.—Army and Navy Journal.

Plans Daring Voyage.

An Irvine man is about to make an attempt to establish a record in the way of a voyage to St. John's, Newfoundland, in a sixteen-foot open sailing boat, reports the London Mail.

The adventurer is Mr. James Green, who is at present employed in Messrs. Mackie and Thomson's shipbuilding yard. Mr. Green has long entertained the idea of making this attempt, and has given the matter careful consideration. He has made arrangements for all his supplies being stored in airtight tanks, and with this exception he does not intend making any alterations on his boat.

He will coast right down to Liverpool, thence over to Queenstown, and after completing his stock of provisions there, his route will be straight across the Atlantic to St. John's.

Mr. Green will undertake the journey unaccompanied, and will take a few books with him to read when the conditions are favorable, and he anticipates doing the double journey in about five months.

Spotlight as Foe to Cupid.

A mounted police officer, the pommel of whose saddle will be provided with a powerful searchlight, and whose duty it will be to patrol the beach front at night for the purpose of putting an end to the "spooping" of young couples, is the latest innovation of Acting Chief of Police Sam Browne of Los Angeles, Cal.

This stretch of smooth beach, sheltered from the gaze of the curious by a precipitous bluff for the most of its length, has been for years a retreat of lovesick swains and the rendezvous of the bibulous who have sought its seclusion for a quiet spree.

Each succeeding chief of police has made vain attempts to break up the illicit use of liquor and the clandestine meetings of foolish girls and their sweethearts in the sand, but it remained for Chief Browne, assisted by Policewoman Reinhart, to solve the problem by providing a mounted officer with an automobile style searchlight that will penetrate every nook and corner of the beach.

MARKETING THE APPLE CROP

The department of Development of the Frisco Railroad will operate their apple packing demonstration car over this territory during the latter part of August. A day's stop will be made at each point scheduled for a meeting. This will give the apple men who have apples to ship a chance to go to the car and study the best methods of preparing apples for the market and for exhibition.

The car is equipped with all necessary boxes, barrels, grading and packing table and chutes, and there is plenty of room for every one to practice grading and packing apples.

A meeting of the apple growers of Monett and vicinity is called for Thursday, August 27, at 2:00 p. m. at the car. There will be a full discussion of apple crop conditions, best methods of handling apples for the market, etc., by the Frisco Horticulturist and by local fruit growers. This meeting is open to everybody. A case containing clay model specimen of all apple and peach diseases is on exhibition.

The apple crop is worth many thousands of dollars to this community and it will be to the interest of every apple grower to attend these meetings.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Monett People to Neglect

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's Disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in Monett.

F. E. Sharp, 10 Broadway, Monett, Mo., says: "About a year ago I suffered intensely from kidney and bladder complaint. I had dull pains in my back and was also subject to dizzy headaches. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Knapp's Drug Store, gave me relief. As I haven't had any return of the trouble, I am only too pleased to endorse them."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sharp had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
